Dear Examiner Shimizu:

Per our conversation today, please find our Amendment in response to a Notice of Drawing Inconsistency with Specification that was mailed on March 19, 2003.

This Amendment was hand delivered to Technology Center 2600 on March 25, 2003 to expedite processing. After checking the PAIR system for the last several days, this Amendment has not been acknowledged. I spoke with Mrs. Lyon in the Customer Service Department for Publications (telephone number 703-308-6789) regarding this matter. She indicated that this process could be expedited by faxing the Amendment to you and having you request the file. After receiving the file and approving the amendment, the file can go back to the final data capture stage at publications and proceed onto publications.
